

LetsGoToATEITH-Problem Description

The Alexander Technological Educational Institute of Thessaloniki is situated outside of the city centre and more specifically near a village called Sindos. The public transportation to the ATEITH is due to over packed busses and not frequent routes. Students from all around the city need an alternative mean of transportation to and from ATEITH. LetsGoToATEITH is here to solve this problem by providing all ATEITH students the first organized carpooling platform.